

BIO

Michael's career has spanned decades, and he now brings that depth and versatility to hotels, restaurants, lounges, weddings, and events.

Gigs have included world tours, playing in a network talk-show band, producing pop artists, scoring for film and television and performing in prestigious venues,

His repertoire ranges from the timeless Great American Songbook to pop hits from the 1960s through today, offering elegant solo piano or tasteful ensemble accompaniment tailored to each venue and occasion.